These women prevented misuse of funds.

Because they established a network to monitor public service delivery and improve government transparency.

Act against corruption. Promote Women’s Empowerment.